A photograph of the interior of a restaurant, specifically the bar area. The scene features a long, dark wooden booth with blue leather-upholstered seating. A dark wooden table is set with white linens, plates, glasses, and a red pepper mill. Large windows with white lace curtains provide a view of the outdoors, where trees and a building are visible. The interior is lit with warm, ambient lighting, including pendant lights with textured glass shades. A white brick pillar is visible in the background.
